NUMB. 1599

110 1597.

Saturday arriv'd a Mail from Holland, and Yesterday one from France.

Rome, July 23. N. S.

THE present Conclave is already the longest that has been known since the Council of Constance; and Affairs there are still in such a Situation, that there is no Prospect when it will have an End, unless Things take another Turn by the Union which is just now accom-plish'd between the Partisans of the Emperor, France, Spain. Mean time of all the Candidates Cardinal Alvares is the most likely to be chose, he having every Morning and Night for this Week past 27 to 31 Voices upon the Scrutiny; but the Election that opposes him is very strong, and leaves no room to turn'd to thwart his Election. Cardinal Al-mean time the Populace begin to be out of all Patience at the Tedioufness of the Conclave, inasmuch as they assembled lately before the Vatican, and the faces of several Crown'd Heads, and bawld out for a Pope, saying, A Pope they must have, no matter who Pasquin prophesied last Week that the Conclave would continue 9 Weeks; but as the Cardinal Alvares wants but 4 or 5 Votes to carry his Election, he is like to be mistaken. 'Tis observ'd, that the French Cardinals de Rohan and Tercin do they can with the Cardinals of the Zealot Party, engage them not to oppose him.

Petersburg, July 19. N. S. The three Criminals formerly mention'd as under Sentence of Banishment, sent accordingly to Siberia. They have only 3 d. pay allow'd them for Subsistence, besides what they earn by hard Labour. As there are more of Wolinski's Accomplices not yet detected, the Empress has promis'd a considerable Reward for their Discovery.

Madrid, July 19. N. S. The Duke de Montemar well respected at Court as ever, notwithstanding Report that he intends to retire. The present Election in this Kingdom is even hotter than in the Year 1704. The News we have had from England, relating to the Departure of the Fleet under Admiral Byng, has determin'd the Court to send Orders to Rodrigo de Torres, Commodore of the Ferrol Squadron, not to stir from thence till farther Orders.

The Secretary of War is gone by the King's Order Guadalaxara, to put a Seal upon the Effects of the Queen Dowager, which are said to amount to the Value of 14 Millions in Precious Stones and Jewels. This Court is so well pleas'd with the Treaty of Peace and Commerce between the King of the Sicilies and the Porte, that 'tis even said his Majesty intends to propose a Treaty of the same Nature to the King of Sardinia, which if it be effected the Porte will be in Peace and good Harmony with all the three Branches of the House of Bourbon. A Treaty of this kind was propos'd in the Reign of Charles II. but the Politics of that Time would not admit of it.

Their Catholic Majesties have sent Orders to St. Sebastian, that the Widow of Capt. Brathwaite, whose husband was kill'd on Board an English Ship brought off by the Spaniards, be treated very kindly with her Children, and furnish'd with all Necessaries.

Venice, July 27. N. S. It not being judg'd necessary to oblige the Grand Signior's Ambassador to perform Quarantine, he arriv'd two Days ago with all Retinue at the Village of Schurecher, a League half from this City, into which he is to make his publick Entry on the 3d of August. He is allow'd every day for himself and Retinue 1125 lb. of Mutton, 2 Lamb, 2 Calves, 30 Fowls, 30 Chickens, 9 Turkeys, 6 Capons, 10 Pigeons, 4 Ducks, 3 Geese, 20 lb. Fish, 20 Measures of Wheat, 100 Measures of Barley, 11 lb. of Cheese, 200 Eggs, 5 Quarts of Cream, 1 Quart of New Milk and Whey, and 186 lb. of Butter, besides a certain Quantity of Pulse, Onions, Saffron, &c. Heretofore the Turks were allow'd Wine, Brandy nor Beer, but as they are now got out of their Scruples about things of that Sort, the Ambassador is allow'd 25 Quarts of Wine a Day, with 200 Pound Weight of Ice, 2 Quarts of Brandy, and 20 Pots of Beer. Mean while the Turks are so careful that the Imperial Ambassador the Count d'Uhlesfeldt may have all proper Accommodations in his Journey, that when the Measures taken for that End happen not to be duly executed, the Defaulters are severely punish'd, and the Commandant of the Village of Hassan Pacha having been negligent in this respect, he was sentenc'd to receive 100 Stripes on the Soles of his Feet. This Day the Baron de Lenthé Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great-Britain as Elector of Hanover, did in his Majesty's Name receive from the Emperor the Investiture of that Electorate and the Fiefs thereon depending. His Imperial Majesty has exhort'd the Elector of Mentz and Prince William of Hesse Cassel to accommodate their Dispute amicably.

Berlin, August 2. N. S. His Prussian Majesty, who return'd hither two Days ago from Charlottenbourg, and din'd at the Castle with the Queen, has advanc'd the Velt Marshals de Barck and Schwerin, the Baron de Hacke one of his Aids de Camp, and the Baron de Kameke Captain of the Gens d'Armes, and Son-in-Law to the Count Golefskin the Russian Ambassador at the Hague, to the Dignity of Counts. This Morning the States of the Marquisate of Brandenburg paid their Homage to his Majesty in the Castle, with very great Splendour, upon which Occasion a great Number of Gold and Silver Medals was distributed, having for their Emblem and Device TRUTH AND JUSTICE: And after a sumptuous Repast which he is to give them this Day, he is to set out with the Queen-Mother for Herrenhausen to visit the King of Great-Britain, after which Interview he will go to Cleves and Westphalia, and some surmise that he will take a Tour to Holland and France. His Majesty has a Design to aggrandize the Court of the Queen his Mother, and has added to that of the young Queen 12 Pages and 8 Footmen. The Wing which is adding to the Palace of Charlottenbourg will be finish'd very soon. 'Tis to be 484 Feet by 36, and over the Portico which projects from the rest of the Building, there is a magnificent Room with a Gallery 130 Feet long. His Majesty has added 2000 Crowns a Year to the Salary of M. Naude, Professor of Mathematicks, and one of the most celebrated Geometricians in Europe. There is a Talk of establishing a Literary Order here, on the same Footing with the Orders of Knighthood, for exciting the Emulation of the Learned to a greater Degree than ever. The King has sent Letters to all the Magistrates of the Town, and Bailiffs of the Country, signifying, that he desires they would take special Care to relieve the Poor, permitting them, if the Funds set apart for that Purpose all short, to relieve them out of the Crown Revenues, and injoyning them not only to feed the Poor, but to give them Money, Cloaths, &c. Before his Majesty return'd from Kenigsberg, he order'd 800000 Measures of Corn to be taken out of his Magazines, and to be sold at a moderate Price to the Poor of the Kingdom of Prussia.

Extract of a Letter from Hanover in the Utrecht Gazette.

Hanover, Aug. 1. N. S. The King has lately receiv'd Dispatches from London, in answer to which we are assur'd that his Majesty has given to understand, that as divers important Affairs require his longer Stay in this Country, he could not set out for London before next Month. One of the principal Affairs that has taken up the King's Attention since he came hither, was the renewing of the Conventions which he formerly made with the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, for taking 6000 Hessians into his Pay, which Affair is just now concluded, and the Treaty sign'd, whereby the King is to pay the same Subsidy as was agreed with the late Landgrave. The Count de Truchses has receiv'd Letters from Berlin, which leaves no room to doubt of a speedy Interview betwixt his Majesty and the King of Prussia: And 'tis reported, that among other material Points that are therein to be settled, the two Monarchs will conclude a Treaty of Defensive Alliance, for securing the Maintenance of the tranquillity of the Empire, and preventing the Troubles with which it may be threaten'd, after the Death of the Elector Palatine, on account of the Difference for the Succession to Juliers and Bergue. In all Appearance other Princes will be invited to accede to this Treaty, and particularly the Kings of Poland and Denmark. 'Tis also suppos'd that this Alliance will be strengthen'd by the Concurrence of several Protestant States of the Empire. Just now we hear that the King of Prussia is expected in four or five Days at Herrenhausen, and 'tis said that his Majesty intends to treat with him for a Body of Troops. This Day his Majesty dispos'd of several Employments both Civil and Military that were vacant. The Form of Prayer us'd in our Churches in the late Time of Scarcity is chang'd into one of Thanksgiving for the Appearance of a plentiful Harvest, together with a Prayer for the Preservation of the Fruits of the Earth, which Form is to be continued till the Harvest is intirely in. The Rye, Barley, and Oats are fallen considerably; but the Wheat was still dear, because so much of that which was sown was intirely spoil'd by last Winter's Frost. They write from Pyrmont, that tho' the Waters there are very good this Year, there is not much Company.

Hanover, Aug. 5. N. S. His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Melchior Gay Dickens, Esq; late his Secretary to the Court of Berlin, and who came hither some time ago to pay his Duty to the King, to be his Majesty's Minister to the said Court, and Yesterday he kiss'd his Majesty's Hand; and having had his Audience of Leave of the King, set out this Evening on his Return to Berlin. The King has been pleas'd to grant the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, void by the Death of Dr. Francis Lockier late Dean thereof, unto the Reverend Dr. John Thomas, one of his Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and now attending his Majesty here.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, Aug. 1. Wind E. S. E. In the Downs his Majesty's Sloop Swift. Came down and sail'd thro', the Dispatch, Cropton, for Jamaica; and the Thomas and Diana, Nelson, for Portsmouth.

Graveland, Aug. 1. Passed by the Magnus, Waterfall, from Ostend; and the Thistle, Wilton, from Virginia.

Arrived,

At Dover, the Prince of Asturias, Ryan; the Margueret, Read; and the Sarah, Scrivener; all from Oporto.

L O N D O N.

They write from Vienna, that the Prince Royal of Poland has made a magnificent Present of Saxon Porcelain to the Empress Dowager, consisting of the Statues of the twelve Apostles, of three Foot and a half each in Height, with a Crucifix, and a Pair of Candlesticks; with which Present that Princess was highly pleas'd.

Prince William of Hesse-Cassel set out on the 19th ult. from Hanover for Cassel, from whence 'tis said he is to come to Holland. The Prince Frederick with his Princess was expected Yesterday Se'nnight at Hanover, where 'tis said they will stay about three Weeks.

The French King has given the Government of Cambray, vacant by the Death of the Marquis de Bezons, to the Count de la Marck, his Ambassador at the Court of Spain.

The Czarina's Manifesto concerning the Affair of M. Wolinski and other State-Criminals his Accomplishes is expected every Day. Mean time we hear from Petersburg, that the Knez Musin Puschkkin, who was a great Favourite of the Czar Peter I. was carry'd Prisoner under a Guard of 30 Men, together with the Brother of the said Wolinski, to Cronstad, where the Number of State Prisoners encreases every Day.

Some Advices from Rome by way of Paris say, that certain Cardinals propos'd to adjourn the Conclave from St. Mary Magdalen's Day, the 22d of July, to the Nativity of the Virgin Mary, the 8th of September, but that the Party call'd the Zealots oppos'd it, as an Innovation that might be dangerous to Holy Church.

Letters of the 24th ult. O. S. from Hanover say, that his Majesty is highly pleas'd with the Dispatches he has receiv'd both from London and Petersburg; that Mr. Finch, his Minister at the Russian Court, succeeds in his Negotiations; and that, in particular, the Czarina has engag'd to send his Majesty a Reinforcement of Men of War, in case he be attack'd by any Enemy besides the King of Spain.

Last Night the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, came to Town from his Seat at Houghton-Hall to his House in Downing-street, Westminster.

On Saturday last died at his Lodgings in Chelsea, after a tedious Indisposition, Captain John Morgan, Captain of a Company at Gibraltar, and Brother to the late Colonel Morgan, Member of Parliament, and Deputy Governor of the Isle of Wight.

The same Day was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleased to appoint Captain Basset, who had been lately Captain of a Merchant-Ship, but taken by the Spaniards, to be 4th Lieutenant of the Ruffel.

The same Day a large Sum of Money was sent from the Pay Office at Whitehall, under a Guard of 12 Grenadiers to the Isle of Wight, in Order to pay the Marines under the Command of Lord Cathcart, to October next.

The same Day George Abbot, Esq; Deputy Paymaster to the Hon. Henry Pelham, Esq; set out for the Isle of Wight.

As did also Mr. Chambre, Deputy Paymaster of the Marines, under Charles Hanbury Williams, Esq;

A few Days since — Bingham of the Temple, Esq; was married to Miss Barr, Daughter of William Barr, Esq; a beautiful young Lady of fine Accomplishment, and a Fortune of 10,000 l. and soon after they set out for Mr. Bingham's Seat in Dorsetshire.

On Saturday last the Assizes ended at Kingston upon Thames for the County of Surry, when the five following Malefactors were capitally convicted:

Creske of Henley, for robbing the Western Mail. His Brother-in-Law, and Accomplice in the Fact, was admitted an Evidence.

Joseph Hooper, for robbing Mr. Comlyn of Wandsworth on the Highway: His half Brother William Hooper was tried for the said Fact and acquitted. These are the two Fellows that were taken behind St. Mary Overy's Church, after a desperate Resistance wherein several Persons were wounded.

George Metcalf, for robbing Mr. Francis Metcalf of a Silver Watch and five Guineas.

Green and Flood, the Ruffians that robb'd two Jews on the Highway near Camberwell.

The same Day came on the Trial of Mr. Bartholomew Greenwood, Riding-Master of the first Troop of Life-Guards, for robbing Roger Wheatly, Esq; on the Highway near Camberwell in Surry; the Trial lasted several Hours, and he was honourably acquitted; so that what we had heard, and mention'd in our Paper of Saturday, of his having been try'd on Friday and found Guilty appears to be false and groundless. Many Persons of great Distinction appear'd for the said Gentleman's Character, the like scarcely known upon any former Trial.

At the Assizes for the County of York the 4 following received Sentence of Death; viz George Leyburne, William Forster, William Campbell, and Joseph Jackson.

William Swallow, and William Rouse, to remain in Prison for the Space of one Year, and pay a Fine of 6 s. 8 d. for attempting to rescue the Prisoners at Wakefield.

Jonathan Wilby, and John Pickersgill, being found guilty of a Riot at Criggleson, were order'd to remain in Gaol for the Space of one Year, and to pay a Fine each of 6 s. 8 d. Besides several others ordered for Transportation.

Last Thursday was married at Shipton in Gloucestershire, the Rev. Mr. Cowlishaw, of Brazen Nose College, Oxford, to Miss Hodges, Sister to Dr. Hodges, Provost of Oriel; a Lady of incomparable Merit, distinguish'd Beauty, and a Fortune of 13000 l.

Last Wednesday died at Charlton, — Dancer, Esq; a Gentleman of a considerable Estate in the County of Kent.

By the Death of Sir John Lade, Bart. who died a Bachelor, the Honour descends to his Kinsman, John Whitehorn, who by Act of Parliament takes the Surname of Lade. The Bulk of his Estate he has bequeathed to John Lade, a Currier's Son in Sussex, to whom he was Great Uncle. Sir John has also given a Legacy of 10000 l. to Miss Nutt, Grand-daughter to one of his Sisters.

Montgomery, Aug. 1. A few Days since the Hon. Mr. Devereux, Knight of the Shire for this County, only Son and Heir Apparent to the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Hereford, was married to the Hon. Miss Price, of Rhwlan in Merionethshire, a most accomplished Lady, and an agreeable Fortune, to the great Joy of both those Noble and Ancient Families. After the Ceremony was over, the new-married were attended at Vaynor, his Lordship's Seat, by the greatest Concourse, and there has been the greatest Rejoicings ever known in those Parts on the like Occasion.

ANTI-SYPHILICON

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and dangerous Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their terrible Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Virus on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Disease attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Swelling, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, may be overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely than by Salivation; Inunction, or any other violent whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without pairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Weakness, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of any other Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Infection by a Dose or two of it, be perfectly free from Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to be in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Effects of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it cures no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, in the main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and every other Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glanorous Ulcers, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by its own Power than any other Medicine yet known can by any.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-Syphiliticon is Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is pointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Richard Toynshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a full Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who are ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Secret.
